

FamilySource: New Content Added to MacDonald & Ferrier, Canadian Divorce Law and Practice

We are pleased to announce the addition of a completely revised Spousal Support Advisory Guidelines section to MacDonald & Ferrier's *Canadian Divorce Law and Practice in FamilySource.

This new addition to the work, authored by Ann C. Wilton and Noel Semple, completely revises and updates commentary respecting the Guidelines and their interaction with sections 15 and 17 of the Divorce Act. The new material places the text, annotations and expert commentary at the family law practitioner's fingertips and is fully searchable within Westlaw Canada's FamilySource online research service. The commentary also includes helpful practice points relating to the guidelines authored by family law practitioners Gary Joseph and Michael Stangarone of MacDonald and Partners LLP, Toronto.

This new commentary can be accessed using the "Wilton & Semple SSAG Commentary" link located on the FamilySource home page. This content can also be retrieved through the FamilySource Commentary Table of Contents and Custom Search Templates.

Illustration 1: Location of the "Wilton & Semple SSAG Commentary" on the FamilySource home page

The screenshot displays the FamilySource home page interface. On the left sidebar, under the heading "Spousal Support Advisory Guidelines (SSAG)", the link "Wilton & Semple SSAG Commentary" is highlighted with a red box. A yellow callout box with a black arrow points to this link, containing the text "Access link for Wilton and Semple SSAG Commentary". The main content area features a search section with "Find" and "KeyCite" radio buttons, and input fields for "Case:", "Legislation:", and "Or, any document by citation:". The "Case:" section includes fields for "Name:", "Jurisdiction:", and "Section:". The "Legislation:" section includes fields for "Title:", "Section:", and "Jurisdiction:". The "Or, any document by citation:" section includes a "Citation:" field. The "CARSWELL" logo is visible at the bottom of the page.